CHAPTER I

FELLOWSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS, STUDENTSHIPS, PRIZES, MEDALS, Etc.

PRELIMINARY

1. No candidate shall be eligible for any non-sectional Fellowship, Prize Medal or other award, who presents himself for the examination to which the award relates more than two years after the expiry of the minimum period prescribed by the regulations governing that examination. The computation of the period for the purpose of this regulation shall begin from the date of the passing of the preceding lower examination which qualifies the candidate to enter on the course for the higher examination ; provided however that where there are alternative qualifications laid down in the Ordinances governing admission to a particular examination, the computation of the period shall begin from the date on which the candidate concerned qualified himself to enter upon the course for the examination.

Nothing in this regulation shall apply to examinations by research.

2. All Prizes not claimed within 12 months from the date of publication of the award shall lapse to the University.

3. All Scholarships not claimed within 12 months from the date of their becoming due shall lapse to their respective Funds.

4. The value of the Scholarships, Medals, Fellowships, Lectureships and Prizes is liable to diminution on the repayment or conversion or other alteration in the conditions of the loan, and may be increased when the capital sum is increased by lapses or otherwise.

5. In the following Regulations the expression "date of graduation" is to be understood the date of a candidate's first receiving any Degree.

6. These Regulations shall be subject to such alteration, addition, or amendment as may be deemed necessary, and as may be consistent with and such as to carry out the objects of the Endowments.

FELLOWSHIPS AND SCHOLARSHIPS FOR PROSECUTING STUDIES IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES

The Mangaldas Nathubhoy Travelling Fellowship

1. "THE MANGALDAS NATHUBHOY TRAVELLING FELLOWSHIP" shall be open to all Graduates of the University of Bombay being Hindus who shall not be of more than five years' standing from the date of their graduation. By the term "date of graduation" is meant the date of a candidate's first receiving any University degree.

2. Candidates for the Fellowship must forward an application to the Registrar in the prescribed form on or before such date as may be appointed by the Syndicate. Candidates are required to forward with their applications certificates of their physical capacity to undergo the course of life and study which they propose to follow, signed or countersigned by a Presidency or Civil Surgeon.

3. The election shall take place without examination by the votes of the Syndicate, the Vice-Chancellor or Senior Fellow present having a casting vote.

4. Whenever there is a vacancy in the Fellowship, a convenient day for holding an election shall be appointed by the Syndicate.

5. The Mangaldas Nathubhoy Fellowship shall be tenable by any one Fellow for a space of three years. The conditions of tenure are that the fellow must leave Bombay and proceed to Europe within a reasonable period after his election, that he shall spend the whole of the three years subsequent to the date of his leaving India for Europe, out of India and six months, at least out of each year in Great Britain or Ireland, and that he shall report twice a year to the University Registrar as to the mode in which his time has been spent.*

6. Any violation of the above conditions shall ipso facto cause the Fellowship to be vacated, and the Syndicate shall be empowered, for any just cause, to recall and deprive of his Fellowship any one who may have been elected.

*The report to be submitted every six months. With each report should be submitted a certificate in the subjoined form, with printed copies of which the Fellow will be supplied when leaving India :—

"I certify that has been studying in the for the last six months and has passed the Examination or has been regular and diligent in study. I further certify that he is making real progress in study and is fit to receive further stipends of the Fellowship."

The certificate should cover the period of six months preceding the date of its issue. If the Fellow has not been attending any course of lectures during such period or any part thereof, he should furnish a certificate showing how and where he has spent his time otherwise than in attending lectures. Such certificates will be accepted if signed by a Clergyman, Magistrate or Justice of the Peace.

7. The Mangaldas Nathubhoy Travelling Fellow shall receive through the University Registrar, in half-yearly instalments payable in advance, from the day of his leaving India, the stipend of the value of interest due on the endowment together with the interest on the additions to the Corpus, if any, made to it from time to time on account of vacancies or any cause whatsoever.

8. Any surplus which may arise from the vacancy of the fellowship during any year or part of a year from any cause whatsoever shall be added to the Corpus of the endowment.

The Sir Mangaldas Nathubhai Scholarships

1. Out of the income of the Sir Mangaldas Nathubhai Scholarship Fund invested in 3% Conversion Loan 1946 and 3% Govt. Loan 1966-68, seven Scholarships, to be called "THE SIR MANGALDAS NATHUBHAI SCHOLARSHIPS," shall be awarded by the Syndicate at the rate of two every year and an additional one every third year or in accordance with any other arrangement that may appear most suitable to the Syndicate.

2. Each Scholarship shall be of the annual value* of the one seventh amount or there about of the interest of the said invested Fund, subject to the five per cent deduction to be mentioned below.

3. The Scholarship shall be open to competition by all Hindu Graduates of the Bombay University, and shall be tenable for not less than three years. An extension of the period of tenure may be granted at the discretion of the Syndicate, provided the whole period does not exceed five years, and if any extension be so granted, the Syndicate may vary, as they deem necessary, the provisions of Regulation (1) so far as the same regulates the periodical award of the Scholarships.

4. Whenever the scholarships are to be awarded, a notification shall be published in the Maharashtra Government Gazette inviting applications for the scholarships, and mentioning the last date up to which applications will be received.

5. Candidates for the Scholarships must forward their applications to the Registrar in the prescribed form as required by the Syndicate. Candidates are required to forward with their application, certificates of their physical capacity to undergo the course of life and study which they propose to follow, signed by a Registered Medical Practitioner of at least ten years' standing.

6. The Syndicate shall consider the applications received by them and shall decide the award of the Scholarships. The decision of the Syndicate shall be final.

*The present net annual value of each Scholarship is Rs. 2,000/-.

7. The Scholarships shall be payable half-yearly in advance. The tenure of the Scholarships shall begin from the first day of the financial year to which the Scholarships relate or from the date of the Scholar's leaving India, whichever is later.

8. The conditions of tenure are:—

That the Scholars, unless they are already in England, must leave Bombay and proceed to England within the first half of the relevant financial year to join the institution or the service of an authority approved by the Syndicate in the subject they intend to study, and reside there for the purpose of receiving technical education. The Syndicate may, however, for good and sufficient reason, extend the above period. Scholars shall report twice a year to the Syndicate as to the mode in which their time has been spent.

9. Any violation of the above conditions shall ipso facto cause the Scholarship to be forfeited, and the Syndicate shall be empowered, for any just cause, to recall and deprive of his Scholarship any one who may have been elected.

10. The annual income of the Fund shall be subject to a deduction of five per cent. to be contributed to the General Fund of the University.

11. Any surplus which may arise from the vacancy of the Scholarships during any portion of the period of their tenure shall be applied by the Syndicate in such manner as they shall think best fitted for furthering the object and purposes of the Endowment.

12. The Senate shall have the power, whenever it may think fit but subject to the directions contained in the order of the High Court, dated the 23rd day of January, 1899, in suits Nos. 444 of 1881 and 114 of 1885, to modify or alter the above regulations.

*FORM OF CERTIFICATE TO BE SUBMITTED BY

The Scholar shall produce a surety approved by the Syndicate who shall guarantee the regular payment of the premia on the policy until the entire amount of the loan with interest is repaid by the scholar or is duly discharged by the Syndicate.

6. Before granting the scholarships or any of them, the Syndicate will consult Sir Currimbhoy Ebrahim for the time being and Sir Fazulbhoy Currimbhoy during his life, and after the death of the latter, the eldest living member of his family, but after such consultation the Syndicate shall have absolute power and discretion to award the scholarships to such persons and on such terms as they may consider fit, subject to these rules.

7. The annual income of the endowment shall be subject to a deduction of five per cent payable to the General Fund of the University.

8. Any surplus which may accrue in connection with this endowment from any cause whatsoever shall be utilized by the Syndicate in such manner as they may deem best fitted for furthering its objects and purposes, viz. the encouragement of higher study in foreign countries among Mahomedan students belonging to the State of Maharashtra.

9. Any question in connection with this endowment not covered by the foregoing regulations shall be decided by the Syndicate and such decision shall be final and conclusive.

10. These regulations shall be subject to such addition, alteration or amendment as the Senate may from time to time deem necessary and as may be consistent with, and such as to carry out, the objects and purposes of the Endowment as specified above

RULES MADE BY THE SYNDICATE UNDER REGULATION 2.

1. The competition for the Scholarships shall be open only to Muslim graduates of the University of Bombay of not more than seven years' standing from the date of graduation who are domiciled in the State of Maharashtra. By the term "date of graduation" is meant the date of a candidate's first passing an examination entitling him to receive a degree

*The premium on the policy must be paid by the scholar

2. Candidates for the Scholarships are required to submit with their applications a certificate testifying to their physical capacity to undergo the course of study selected by them in a foreign country, signed by a registered medical practitioner of position and standing.

3. Each Scholarship shall ordinarily be tenable for a period of three years. In special cases a year's extension of the period of tenure may be granted at the discretion of the Syndicate.

4. The monthly stipend of each Scholarship will be Rs. 300, payable in advance in half-yearly instalments, subject to the Scholar's conduct and progress in study being satisfactory. The first half-yearly instalment will be paid to the Scholar on his entering into an agreement* as stated below, and insuring his life

*Form of the Agreement to be signed by scholars before the grant of Scholarships to them:

To,

The REGISTRAR,
University of Bombay, Bombay.

Sir,

In consideration of the Sir Currimbhoy Ebrahim/Bai K.N.J.P. Loan Scholarship granted to me by the University, I hereby agree to undertake that—

1. I shall during the tenure of the Scholarship, abide by all the terms and conditions thereof and pursue diligently the course of studies mentioned in my application, and submit to you regularly half-yearly reports of progress in studies accompanied by the necessary certificates ;
2. I shall take out an insurance policy on my life with a Company, approved by the Syndicate, for an amount equal to the total amount of the Scholarship. In case the tenure of the Scholarship is extended in my favour, or if the Syndicate make any further advances to me as a Sir Currimbhoy Ebrahim/Bai K.N.J.P. Scholar, I undertake to take out additional insurance policies for the additional amounts advanced to me whether by extension of tenure or otherwise ;
3. I shall assign and transfer to the University all policies taken out by me under 2 above and shall regularly pay the premia on them ;
4. I shall repay the entire amounts advanced to me by way of stipends of the scholarship with interest thereon, as soon as I begin to earn an income, the repayment being on the following basis:—
 - (i) One-tenth of the annual income if it should be between Rs. 250 and Rs. 400 per month ;

3. The person awarded the scholarship or research grant shall be required to do research work in Agricultural Economics approved by the Director of the Department.

4. The person who receives the scholarship or research grant shall submit to the Syndicate through the Director of the Department terminal reports regarding the progress of his work.

5. The amount of the Scholarship shall be payable in arrears every quarter on production of a certificate of regular attendance etc. ; if, however, a research grant is awarded the amount may be paid in one instalment in advance through the Director of the Department of Economics to enable the grantee to do his work.

The Raja Ratna Kapilram H. Vakil Memorial Scholarship

1. A Scholarship to be called "THE RAJA RATNA KAPILRAM H. VAKIL MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP" of the value of the annual income of the endowment of Rs. 12,000, subject to the 5 per cent deduction mentioned below and tenable for one year shall be awarded annually by the Syndicate to the best qualified graduate of the University of Bombay in Chemical Engineering during the year who undertakes research in (1) salt or (2) salt and allied chemicals or failing such a candidate, to the candidate who undertakes research in Chemical Engineering in the University Department of Chemical Technology.

2. The Scholarship shall be awarded after inviting applications in the beginning of each academic year, by a circular placed on the Notice Board of the University Department of Chemical Technology, from graduates in Chemical Engineering who have joined the Department for research.

3. The scholarship shall be paid in two equal half-yearly instalments on a bill to be drawn by the Director of the Department who shall certify under his signature that the scholar is in regular attendance in the Department, that his conduct is good and that his progress is satisfactory.

4. Should the scholar discontinue his research work or be unfavourably reported on by the Director of the Department, it shall be in the discretion of the Syndicate to stop payment of the further instalment of the scholarship, or to declare the scholarship forfeited.

5. Any surplus which may arise shall be applied by the Syndicate in such manner as they shall think best fitted for furthering the object of the endowment.

6. The annual income of the endowment shall be subject to a deduction of 5 per cent payable to the General Fund of the University.

THE BOMBAY MILLOWNERS' ASSOCIATION RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS

1. The fellowships called "THE BOMBAY MILLOWNERS' POST-DOCTORAL RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS" of the value of Rs. 400 each per month, one for Textile Chemistry and the other for Dyestuff Technology, are awarded every alternate year by the Syndicate to graduates in Technology of the University of Bombay in the respective subjects, who possess a doctorate degree of the University or of a recognized University and undertake research on an approved problem in the University Department of Chemical Technology.

2. In addition, two Research Fellowships to be called "THE BOMBAY MILLOWNERS' RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS" of the value of Rs. 150/- each per month are awarded every alternate year, one to a graduate in Textile Chemistry and the other to a graduate in Dyestuff Technology, of the University of Bombay, who undertake research work in the University Department of Chemical Technology in their respective subjects for the degree of M.Sc. (Tech.) or Ph.D.

3. A candidate for a Research Fellowship should send in his application in the prescribed form so as to reach the Director of the Department of Chemical Technology, Matunga, Bombay—19, not later than the 1st July.

4. Each Fellowship is ordinarily tenable for a period of two years from the date on which the student commences his research work on his investigation. The Syndicate have discretion to continue any Research Fellowships for a further period not exceeding two years, if they are satisfied that the character of the investigation or research and the ability shown by the Research Student justify such extension.

5. A Research Fellow, who does not begin his work within one month from the date of award of the fellowship, is liable to forfeit his Fellowship.

6. Every Fellow, during the tenure of his Fellowship, shall engage himself diligently in his investigation. He shall submit periodical reports of the progress of his work to the Syndicate in accordance with the rules framed by the Syndicate from time to time. If the Syndicate are not satisfied with the progress of the investigation, they shall be at liberty to cancel the studentship or withhold the payment of any stipend or stipends.

7. Every Fellow shall enter into an agreement with the University, on terms to be settled by the Syndicate, to engage diligently in research work during the tenure of his Fellowship, and to refund to the University the stipends drawn by him if he resigns his Fellowship before the expiry of his tenure, or if he forfeits the Fellowship for misconduct or for unsatisfactory progress.

8. A Fellow shall not be permitted to take out a patent. He shall not publish his research except with the previous permission of the Syndicate. He shall send to the Syndicate 50 copies of the off-prints of a paper/papers, if any, published by him, embodying the research work done.

9. Every fellow shall, at the expiry of his Fellowship, submit four printed or typed copies of a paper embodying the results and giving an account of his investigations to the Syndicate. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prevent him from submitting to the Syndicate at any date prior to the expiry of his fellowship the results of his completed research. Provided, however, that where the results are embodied in a thesis to be submitted to this University, the Research Fellow shall not be required to submit a separate report, but shall submit two additional copies of the thesis.

10. Every Fellow shall devote his whole time to the research work and shall not, during the tenure of the Fellowship, accept any work or employment.

OTHER RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIPS, FELLOWSHIPS AND RESEARCH STUDENTSHIPS

The Springer Research Scholarship

1. "THE SPRINGER RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP" of the value of Rs. 100 (one hundred) per mensem shall be open to all Graduates of the University of Bombay.

2. Candidates for the Scholarship must forward an application to the Registrar stating what line of original research they intend to prosecute with reference to any of the subjects hereinafter mentioned and where, and their qualifications for that line.

3. The Syndicate shall select for the Scholarship from among the applicants such candidate as, in their opinion, has the necessary qualifications in the particular line of research chosen by him and has sufficient facilities at his disposal for the work.

4. The Scholarship shall be tenable by any one Scholar for a period of two years provided that it shall be in the discretion of the Syndicate to extend that period.

5. The Scholarship shall be awarded alternately for a scientific subject and a literary subject connected with Indian Archaeology and Epigraphy (with special reference to historical research), or with Pali, Sanskrit, or Prakrit Scholarship, provided that when in any one year an eligible candidate is not, in the opinion of the Syndicate, available for the subject in which according to this rule, it has to be awarded, it shall be competent to the Syndicate to award it to an eligible candidate in the other or alternate subject.

6. The conditions of tenure are : (a) that at the end of each year to which the Scholarship relates the Scholar shall submit to the Registrar a full report of the work of research done by him during that year : (b) that any paper written by him during the tenure of the Scholarship upon any subject connected with the particular line of research chosen by him under these regulations shall, if published by him, be published only as a Springer Research Scholar of this University ; (c) that his work during the tenure of the Scholarship shall be subject to the supervision of a Committee appointed by the Syndicate ; and (d) that during the tenure of the Scholarship, at least once a year after the first year of his selection he shall read a paper on the particular subject of original research for which he has been selected before such Society as, in the opinion of the Syndicate, is interested in the subject matter of the paper.

7. The value of the Scholarship shall be Rs. 100 (one hundred) a month payable in advance for every six months, and any surplus from the endowment shall, in the discretion of the Syndicate, be reserved for the expense of printing and the like connected with the objects of the endowment.

8. The Scholarship shall at any time be liable to forfeiture, if the Scholar fails to satisfy the Syndicate that he is carrying on his work of original research properly, or if the Syndicate, being of opinion that he has broken any of the conditions herein specified, deems it necessary, in the exercise of its discretion, to deprive him of the Scholarship.

9. Every decision of the Syndicate with reference to the Scholarship in furtherance of these rules shall be by a majority of votes, the Vice-Chancellor or Senior Fellow presiding having a casting vote.

10. In the event of the Scholarship not being awarded or of forfeiture under rule No. 8 or in the event of its lapsing owing to the death or the like cause, of the Scholar, the money shall be reserved to be applied by the Syndicate in such manner as they shall think best fitted for furthering the object and purposes of the endowment.

11. A deduction of five per cent payable to the General Fund of the University shall be made from the annual income of the endowment to meet the expenses of the administration of its Fund.

The Sir Pherozechah M. Mehta Research Scholarship

The Ratanji Ranchhodji Desai Research Fellowship and Gold Medal

1. "THE RATANJI RANCHHODJI DESAI RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP" of the annual value of Rs. 550 (five hundred and fifty) shall be open to competition by members of the staff of the Seth Gordhandas Sunderdas Medical College, Bombay, and by all Graduates in Medicine of the University of Bombay. The Fellowship shall ordinarily be attached to the Seth Gordhandas Sunderdas Medical College and the Fellow shall be required to carry out his work of research at that College. If the Syndicate find that there is not in that College adequate provision for carrying out the research work undertaken by the Fellow, they shall have the power to depute the Fellow to a College where there are better facilities for the purpose.

A Gold Medal,* to be called "THE RATANJI RANCHHODJI DESAI GOLD MEDAL" shall be awarded annually by the Syndicate to the candidate who passes the Ph.D. Examination by papers with the highest distinction in the Chemistry Branch: But if there is no candidate passing the Examination with the highest distinction the Medal shall be awarded to a candidate whose thesis is considered by the Board of Studies in Chemistry to be of the highest merit among the theses submitted for the degree in the Chemistry Branch during the year.

2. The Ratanji R. Desai Research Fellow will be required to do research work in Tuberculosis and in the absence of any applicant selected for such work, in such branch of Medicine as the Syndicate may decide.

3. Candidates for the Fellowship must forward their applications to the Registrar in the prescribed form.

4. The Syndicate shall select for the Fellowship from among the applicants such candidate as in their opinion has the necessary qualifications for research in Tuberculosis or in the particular branch of Medicine chosen by him and has sufficient facilities at his disposal for the work.

5. Ordinarily the Fellowship shall be tenable for two years; but it will be open to the Syndicate to extend the term of the Fellowship by such period not exceeding two years, as the Syndicate may think proper, if the research work done by the Fellow during the tenure of his Fellowship be found to be particularly satisfactory and it is considered desirable to extend the term under the circumstances of a particular case.

6. The conditions of tenure are: (a) that at the end of each year to which the Fellowship relates, the Fellow shall submit to the Registrar a full report of the work of research done by him during that year; such report to be submitted, at the discretion of the Syndicate, to a competent authority for opinion. The

*Up to 1934, the Medal used to be awarded for the M.Sc. Degree.

Syndicate may, after considering the opinion of such competent authority, declare the Fellowship to be forfeited ; (b) that any paper written by him during the tenure of the Fellowship upon any subject connected with the particular line of research chosen by him under the regulations, shall, if published by him, be published only as the Ratanji Ranchhodji Desai Research Fellow of this University.

7. The stipend of the Fellowship shall be payable every six months in arrears on a bill to be drawn by the Fellow.

8. Within three months after the expiration of the tenure of his Fellowship, the Fellow shall submit to the Syndicate a paper embodying the results of his researches which, if the funds permit, shall be printed and published by the University and copies presented to such Institutions as the Syndicate may select for the purpose.

9. Any violation of the conditions of award shall ipso facto cause the Fellowship to be forfeited.

10. If in any year the Fellowship be not awarded or if it be forfeited under Regulations 6 and 9, the Syndicate shall have discretion to utilize the annual income in any manner calculated to further the object of the endowment.

11. The annual income of the Endowment shall be subject to a deduction of five per cent payable to the General Fund of the University.

12. A Gold Medal, to be called "THE RATANJI RANCHHODJI DESAI GOLD MEDAL," shall be awarded annually by the Syndicate to the candidate who passes the Ph.D. Examination with the highest distinction in the Chemistry Branch.

13. In the event of the candidate fulfilling the requirements of the above regulation, being the recipient of the Moos Medal, the Medal shall be awarded to the next best qualified candidate in the same branch.

14. The Medal will be presented at the Convocation for conferring degrees.

15. The annual income of the Fund shall be subject to a deduction of five per cent to be contributed to the General Fund of the University.

16. Any surplus which may accrue in connection with this endowment shall be applied by the Syndicate in such manner as they shall think best fitted for furthering its object and purposes.

The Dr. Sir Mangaldas Mehta Research Scholarship and the Dr. Sir Mangaldas Mehta Gold Medal

1. A. Gold Medal to be designated "THE DR. SIR MANGALDAS MEHTA GOLD MEDAL," not exceeding Rs.200/- in value shall be awarded by the Syndicate annually to the candidate who passes the M.D. examination with the highest proficiency in Branch III—Obstetrics, Gynaecology and Diseases of Infancy and is recommended by the examiners as most deserving of it. In case such a candidate is not available for the award of the above medal in any particular year at the M.D. examination in Branch III—Obstetrics, Gynaecology and Diseases of infancy, the Medal may be awarded at the discretion of the Syndicate, to a candidate, who passes the M.D. examination with the highest proficiency in Branch I—Medicine and Therapeutics, or failing such a candidate in Branch I, to a candidate who passes the M.D. examination with the highest proficiency in Branch II—Pathology and Bacteriology, or failing such a candidate in Branch II, to a candidate who passes the M.D. examination with the highest proficiency in Branch IV—Pharmacology, or failing such a candidate in Branch IV, to a candidate who passes the M. D. examination with the highest proficiency in Branch V—Pediatrics, or failing such a candidate in Branches I, II, III, IV, and V, to a candidate who passes the M.D. examination with the highest proficiency in Branch VI—Tuberculosis, provided that in each case the candidate is recommended by the examiners as most deserving of the award and provided further that the candidate so recommended is not awarded the Prince of Wales Gold Medal."

2. The Gold Medal shall be awarded to the successful candidate at the annual Convocation for conferring degrees.

3. A Research Scholarship of the value of about Rs. 1,200 per year to be designated "THE DR. SIR MANGALDAS MEHTA RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP," for research on a subject relating to Obstetrics and/or Gynaecology shall be awarded every alternate year by the Syndicate to a graduate in Medicine and Surgery (M.B., B.S.) of the Bombay University of not more than 10 years' standing, preference being given to a holder of a post-graduate degree or diploma in the subject of Midwifery and Gynaecology. The applicant shall state in his application the amount of time he will be able to devote to his research if the research Scholarship is awarded to him, and also whether he will be doing any other work for remuneration or otherwise during the tenure of his scholarship.

4. The candidate so selected will work as a Research Scholar at the K.E.M. Hospital, the Nowrosjee Wadia Maternity Hospital, the Bai Motlibai and Petit Hospitals, the Cama Hospital, the Yamunabai Naik Hospital, the Municipal General Hospital, Sion, or any Hospital approved by the Syndicate, on one of the subjects selected by the applicant and approved by the Syndicate.

5. Subject to the following conditions, the Scholarship shall be ordinarily tenable for one year:—

- (a) The candidate shall submit a six monthly report of the research work in which he is engaged.
- (b) The candidate may at his option submit his research work as a thesis for the M.D. degree, Midwifery Branch.
- (c) At the end of the tenure of the scholarship the candidate shall submit a report of his investigations to the Syndicate who will forward it to a Committee of at least two competent persons one of whom shall be the teacher under whom the candidate may have carried out his investigations. The Committee so constituted will advise the Syndicate whether the investigations merit publication by the University.

- (d) The Syndicate may, at their discretion, grant an extension of the Scholarship for a further period of one year, if they are satisfied that the character of the investigations or research and the ability shown by the Research Scholar justify such extension.
- (e) Should the selected candidate fail to submit a satisfactory report as required by (c) above, the Syndicate may at its discretion, after full consideration of the circumstances of the case, deem the scholarship to be forfeited.
- (f) The stipend of the Scholarship shall be payable every six months on a bill to be drawn by the Scholar.

6. In the year in which the Scholarship cannot be awarded for any reason or is forfeited under clause 5(e) above, the Syndicate shall arrange to invite applications for grants to be made out of this endowment to aid research in subjects related to Obstetrics and Gynaecology. At the discretion of the Syndicate such grant may be renewed for another year.

7. All applications for such grants-in-aid shall be made in writing on a prescribed form and shall include the names and addresses of not more than two persons to whom reference may be made, giving information as under :—

- (a) The nature of the research in which the applicant desires to engage or is engaged, and of the results expected to follow therefrom.
- (b) The name of the institution at which the candidate proposes to carry out his investigations and the name of the teacher under whom he proposes to work.
- (c) The estimated amount required for such work and particulars of the proposed expenditure.
- (d) Whether the applicant has received, has applied for or is applying for, any grant from any other source for the same object and if so, with what results.
- (e) Whether it is proposed to expend any portion of the grant applied for in aid of the expenses of special assistance or for purchase of equipment.

8. All instruments and specimens of permanent value purchased out of the grant from this Fund shall be returned to the Registrar of the University when the research is completed, unless the Syndicate in particular cases shall otherwise determine.

9. All published papers containing the results of research in aid of which a grant has been made shall include a statement to the effect that such research had been aided by a grant from this fund; and two copies of such papers shall be furnished to the Registrar of the University.

10. On or before the 1st day of March in each year every research worker receiving grant shall furnish to the Syndicate a typewritten report (or if the object of the grant be not then attained an interim report until a report can be furnished or the Committee dispenses with further reports) containing:—

- (a) a brief statement showing the results arrived at or the stage which the enquiry has reached ;
- (b) a statement of expenses incurred, accompanied by vouchers ;
- (c) a list of instruments, specimens, objects or materials, purchased or obtained out of the grant or supplied by the Committee, which are at present in his possession ;
- (d) references to any transactions, journals or other publications in which results of the research have been printed.

11. If in any year* there are no suitable applicants for grants-in-aid, a research grant of the value of Rs. 1,200 to be called "THE DR. SIR MANGALDAS MEHTA RESEARCH GRANT" shall be awarded to a graduate in Medicine of this University for published research work on a subject related to Obstetrics and Gynaecology, which in the opinion of the Syndicate on the recommendation of the Selection Committee shall be the best contribution of the Year to the Science of Obstetrics and Gynaecology.

12. The grant shall be awarded after inviting applications and only if in the opinion of the Selection Committee a work of sufficient merit has been published.

13. Applicants for the grant shall forward to the Syndicate on or before the prescribed date at least four copies of the publication which they desire to be considered for this grant.

14. The Syndicate shall forward all publications received to a Selection Committee appointed by the Syndicate (of not less than 3 persons) who shall report to the Syndicate the name of the person whom they consider deserving of the grant.

15. The annual income of the endowment shall be subject to a deduction of 5 per cent to be payable to the General Fund of the University.

16. Any surplus which may arise from the non-award of the medal or the grant or both during any year may be applied by the Syndicate in such manner as they think best fitted for furthering the object and purposes of the Endowment.

THE DR. (MISS) AIMAI MANECKJI COOPER RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP

Research Studentships

1. Research Studentships may be awarded annually to persons who hold either a Master's Degree or a Doctor's Degree of this University, subject to the conditions set out hereinafter.

2. These Research studentships shall be held only by students working in Institutions, or under the guidance of teachers attached to institutions, within the territorial limits of the jurisdiction of this University as defined in Section 5(1) of the Bombay University Act, 1953.

3. The object of the Research Studentships is to enable research students to undertake research in any subject in the Faculty of Arts, Science, Technology, Law, Medicine or Commerce.

4. The Research Students shall be required to work on a subject of research approved by the relevant University authorities.

5. A candidate for a Research Studentship shall send in his application in the prescribed form to the Registrar so as to reach him not later than the date to be fixed by the Syndicate in this behalf. No application received after the prescribed date will be accepted without the express sanction of the Syndicate. The application shall contain the following among other particulars:—

- (a) The subject or matter which the applicant proposes to investigate, and/or the general nature of the research he proposes to undertake ;
- (b) The place where he proposes to conduct or carry on his research ;
- (c) The person under whose guidance he proposes to carry on the research ;
- (d) Whether he has received permission to conduct or carry on research in the place selected by him.

6. The award of the Research Studentships shall be made by the Syndicate after inviting recommendations from the relevant Boards of Studies.

7. The stipend of a Research Student in a faculty other than the faculty of Medicine shall be Rs. 100/- per month. The stipend of a Research Student holding the M.D. or M.S. degree shall be Rs. 150/-

8. A Research Studentship shall ordinarily be tenable for a period of two years from the date after the award on which the student commences his research work on his investigation. The Syndicate shall have discretion to continue any Research Studentship for a further period not exceeding two years, if they are satisfied that the character of the investigation or research and the ability shown by the Research Student justify such extension.

9. A Research Student, who does not begin his work within one month from the date of the award of the Studentship, is liable to forfeit his Studentship.

10. The student, during the tenure of his Studentship, shall engage himself diligently in his investigation. He shall submit periodical reports of the progress of his work to the Syndicate in accordance with the rules framed by the Syndicate from time to time. If the Syndicate are not satisfied with the progress of the investigation, they shall be at liberty to cancel the Studentship, or withhold the payment of any stipend or stipends.

11. Every Research Student shall enter into an agreement with the University, on terms to be settled by the Syndicate, to engage diligently in research work during the tenure of his Studentship, and to refund to the University the stipends drawn by him if he resigns his Studentship before the expiry of his tenure, or if he forfeits the Studentship for misconduct or for unsatisfactory progress. The Syndicate may discharge a student from his obligation to refund the stipends drawn by him if they are satisfied that he is compelled to resign the studentship before the expiry of its tenure owing to circumstances beyond his control.

12. A Research Student shall not be permitted either to take out a patent or to publish his research, except with the previous permission of the Syndicate.

13. Each Research Student shall, at the expiry of his Studentship, submit four printed or typed copies of a paper embodying the results and giving an account of his investigations to the Syndicate. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prevent him from submitting to the Syndicate at any date prior to the expiry of his Studentship the results of his completed research.

14. The student shall not, during the tenure of his Studentship, accept any other work or employment.

15. If the results of the research work are considered to be of sufficient merit to deserve publication, the Syndicate may make arrangements for the publication thereof either by the University itself or by making a grant to the Research Student, or by publishing the results in the University Journal.

* One additional Scholarship under this category will be awarded every fourth year.

† The certificate as to domicile should be obtained from the Parsi Panchayat wherever one exists, and where there is no Parsi Panchayat in existence, the Collector's certificate may be accepted. The certificate should be to the effect that the father has resided for a period of at least 15 years in the place where the applicant claims to be domiciled and if the father is dead, that the applicant has continuously resided with a guardian for a period of at least 15 years.

in Poona, and failing Parsis of either of these two cities, to Parsis of any other part of India or Pakistan provided that no Scholarship for post-graduate work shall be awarded to any applicant with a lower qualification than a second class Bachelor's degree of any Indian University or any University in Pakistan and that no Scholarship for study in a foreign country shall be awarded to an applicant with a lower qualification than a Master's degree of any Indian University or any University in Pakistan, and provided also that candidates for both the post-graduate Scholarships shall not be graduates of more than ten year's standing from the date of their first passing a degree examination. Provided further that the prescription of subjects of study, the qualifications of Scholars and the selection of Scholars shall be entirely within the discretion of the Syndicate of the University of Bombay.

6. Candidates for the Scholarships tenable in a Foreign Country must forward their applications to the Registrar in the prescribed form. They are required to forward with their applications certificates of their physical capacity to undergo the course of study which they propose to follow signed by a Registered Medical Practitioner of at least ten years' standing. In the case of candidates for Scholarships other than those tenable in Foreign Countries, the candidates must forward their applications in the prescribed form.

7. In appointing Scholars, the Syndicate shall consult the wishes of the Trustees of the Eduljee Dinshaw Charities so long as they or any of them shall be alive, but the final judgment and decision shall be within the sole discretion of the Syndicate.

8. The Syndicate shall frame and publish rules with regard to qualifications of the candidates and subjects for study, and the terms and conditions on which the Scholarships will be awarded, held, cancelled or forfeited.

9. The Syndicate shall give due notice in the Maharashtra Government Gazette about the date in each year by which all applications for Scholarships shall be received and any application received after the date shall be considered or not as the Syndicate may elect.

10. The period for which these Scholarships will be tenable will ordinarily be three years with discretion to the Syndicate to extend any of the Scholarships to four years on grounds deemed sufficient by them.

11. The appointments to the Scholarships will be made by the votes of the Syndicate.

12. The foreign Country Scholarships shall be payable half-yearly in advance from the day of the Scholar leaving India/Pakistan or, if he is already in a Foreign Country, from the date of his appointment.

13. The Scholars for Foreign Country Scholarships, unless they are already in the Foreign Country where the Scholarships are to be held, must proceed to the Foreign Country two months before the commencement of the first Session of the Institution which they intend to join or two months before the date on which they are to join the service of an authority to be approved by the Syndicate in the subject they intend to study, and reside there for the purpose of receiving Technical Education and they shall report twice a year to the Syndicate as to the mode in which their time has been spent in a form to be prescribed by the Syndicate.

14. Any violation of the above conditions shall render the Scholarships liable to forfeiture and the Syndicate shall be empowered for any just cause to recall and deprive of his Scholarship any one who may have been appointed.

15. Any surplus which may arise from the vacancy of any of the above Scholarships during any portion of the period of tenure, shall be applied by the Syndicate in such manner as they shall think best fitted for furthering the object and purposes of the endowment viz., the advancement and encouragement of Technical Education in the Parsi Community.

16. It shall be discretionary with the Syndicate to reduce or to extend the number of Scholarships as circumstances may from time to time require or render expedient.

17. Any question in connection with this endowment not covered by the foregoing regulations shall be decided by the Syndicate and such decision shall be final and conclusive.

18. These regulations shall be subject to such additions, alterations, or amendments as the Senate may from time to time deem necessary and as may be consistent with and such as to carry out the objects of the endowment as specified above.

19. The annual income of the Fund shall be subject to a deduction of 5 per cent to be contributed to the General Fund of the University.

Rules framed by the Syndicate under Regulation No. 8 relating to the Scholarships, regarding the qualifications of candidates for the Eduljee Dinshaw Scholarships and the conditions of tenure.

2. The Syndicate shall annually invite a competent Indian Scholar to deliver a course of lectures on any subject connected with Gujarati Literature or the History of Gujarat.

3. The lectures shall be delivered at such time in each year at Bombay as the Syndicate may appoint.

4. The number of lectures shall not be less than five.

5. The lecturer shall be paid an honorarium of Rs. 1,000 (one thousand) out of the interest of the fund of this endowment, the balance being credited to the publication account of this Lectureship.

6. The lecturer shall hand over to the Syndicate the manuscript of the said lectures or if he has delivered the lectures from notes, then the notes after proper elaboration, which shall be at the discretion of the lecturer either in English or Gujarati, provided, however, that the Syndicate may require any particular Lecturer to furnish his manuscript in Gujarati

7. The copyright in the said lectures shall vest in the University.

8. The University may from time to time, out of the income reserved for publication purposes as aforesaid, publish the lectures or any part thereof which the Syndicate deems fit for publication. It will be open to the University to receive any contributions towards the expenses of any particular publication.

9. The said publication shall be known as "The Thakkar Vassonji Madhavji Lectures" on the literature and History of Gujarat and, subject to any special contract which the Syndicate may make, all the rights in the said series shall remain in the University.

10. The annual income of the fund shall be subject to a deduction of 5 per cent payable to the General Fund of the University.

The Sir Lallubhai Shah Memorial Lectureship and Prize

The Lectureship and Prize are awarded in accordance with the following Regulations :—

1. The interest accruing on the investments of the above Endowment shall be utilized in the following manner.

2. The said interest shall be accumulated for a period of three years and every fourth year, a sum of Rs. 1,200 out of such accumulation shall be utilised in the manner hereinafter indicated.

3. The said sum of Rs. 1,200 shall be set apart by the Syndicate for payment as an honorarium to a Lecturer who shall deliver not less than three lectures on any legal subject, preferably connected with Hindu Law, or for a Prize to be awarded to the writer of an essay on any legal subject, preferably connected with Hindu Law, as the case may be.

4. In the year in which the award is due in accordance with the foregoing Regulations, the Faculty of Law shall recommend to the Syndicate the manner in which the said sum shall be utilized. If the Faculty recommends that a Lecturer be invited, it shall suggest for the consideration of the Syndicate the subject on which the lectures should be delivered and the name of the person who should be invited for the purpose.

If the Faculty recommends that the Prize should be awarded for an essay, the Faculty shall recommend to the Syndicate the name or names of referees to whom the essay, when received, should be referred for examination and report.

5. The sum left to the credit of the endowment after the payment of the honorarium for the lectures or the essay as the case may be, shall be reserved for the publication of the lectures or the essay or any part thereof which the Syndicate deems fit for publication.

6. In case no suitable person is found in any year in which the award is due to be made, for delivering the lectures, or no Prize is awarded for the essay, or in case the balance left over for publication is not utilized in any year, the amount of honorarium or the balance for publication so remaining unspent shall be added to the corpus of the Fund, and the Syndicate shall be at liberty to increase the remuneration to be paid for the lectures or the value of the Prize for the essay.

Undertaking required to be signed by the Applicant

I have read the regulations governing the grant of Research Studentship, and, in the event of a Research Studentship being awarded to me, I agree to abide by all the conditions laid down therein and specifically set out hereinafter :—

1. To begin the work of research within one month from the date of the award, engage myself diligently in the investigation undertaken by me and submit periodical reports of the progress of the work to the Syndicate in accordance with the rules framed by the Syndicate from time to time.
2. During the tenure of the Studentship not to accept any other work or employment, nor take out a patent, nor publish the results of the research without the previous permission of the Syndicate.
3. At the expiry of my Studentship, to submit four printed or typed copies of a paper embodying the results of the research carried on by me and giving an account of my investigations.
4. To refund to the University the stipends drawn by me in the event of resigning the Studentship before the expiry of the term, or if the Studentship is forfeited due to misconduct or unsatisfactory progress on my part, or if I fail to fulfil any of the conditions on which the Studentship is awarded to me.
